

Cookies Policy

Use of cookies

In order to improve your browsing experience, www.mpimmigration.com makes use of cookies. When you visit our site, a small amount of information will be stored on your device, using small text files called "cookies".

Session cookies and tracking cookies

Cookies may either expire at the end of a browsing session (the time that elapses between opening and closing of the browser window) or be stored for a longer period of time.

– Session cookies allow websites to link user actions during a browser session. Session cookies expire when the browser session ends and are therefore not stored.

– Tracking cookies are stored on a user's device between browser sessions and remember user preferences or actions within a longer timeframe.

"First party" and "Third party" cookies

A cookie is classified as "First party" or "Third party" depending on its website or domain of origin.

– "First-party" cookies are sent by the website being used.

– "Third-party" cookies are sent by external partner websites, which may provide several services or functions on the website (such as LinkedIn)

Cookie details for this website

We do not use cookies for profiling and marketing purposes.

The list below summarizes the types of cookies used on our website and their purposes.
